From the Principal

Good Afternoon, Gator Families,

As we head into winter break, I hope you all enjoy time this winter season with friends and family. We wish you health and happiness in the New Year! Please be reminded that Friday, December 22, is an asynchronous half-day and students will not report to school buildings. Teachers will post assignments in Schoology for A-Day classes; Students should log into Schoology to be marked present.

We've seen an increased number of requests for excused absences for travel. While travel can be a valuable learning experience, it is not a legal excuse for absence. Attendance is the number one factor impacting your child's academic success and we encourage all families to prioritize school attendance. If you're planning ahead for this year or next year, please see links to the BCPS Calendars: 2023-2024 BCPS Calendar: HERE 2024-2025 BCPS Calendar: HERE

Mark Your Calendars:

Friday, December 22 – Asynchronous half day; Winter break begins at 11:30 AM

Tuesday, January 2 – Schools Reopen

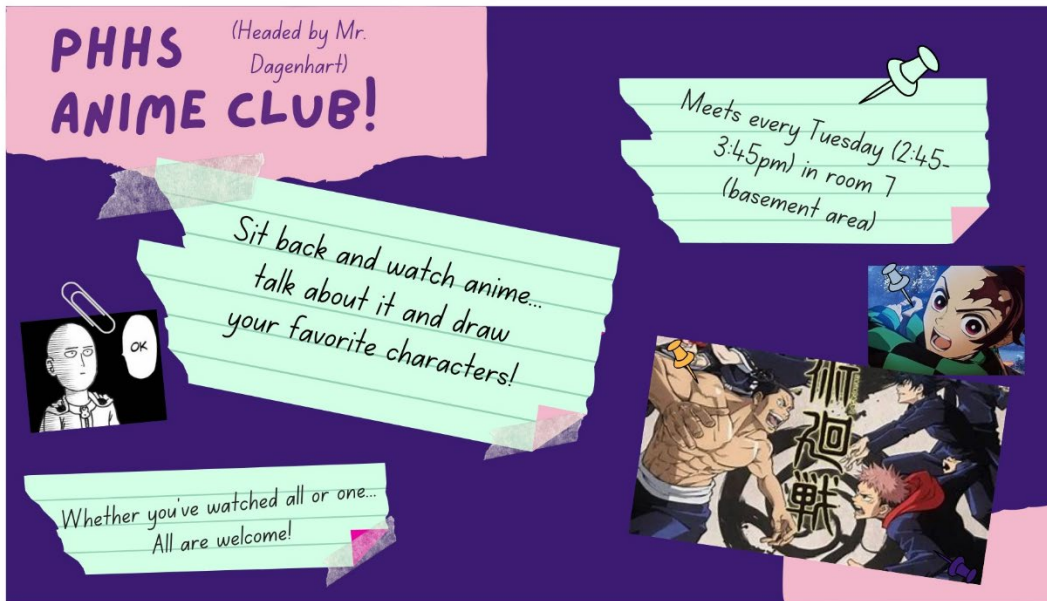

Monday, January 15 – Schools Closed for MLK Day

Friday, January 19 – End of Marking Period 2

Anime Club

Anime Club is a club headed by Mr. Dagenhart. It meets every Tuesday from 2:45pm-3:45pm in room 7. Most of the time, we're just relaxing and watching anime or just simply talking about it. But overall, it's welcoming and friendly and there isn't a bar of entry. Whether you've watched one anime... or all anime... you're welcome. Even if you haven't SEEN an anime you could walk in and get a consensus on what they're all about!

CCBC-Cont'd

PHHS/CCBC Early College Cohort

What is it?

Currently, there are options for both PHHS Juniors and Seniors to participate in the College Cohorts.

Juniors who apply and are accepted can opt out of their English 11 class and in its' place take 3 CCBC college classes, including English 101. These classes will be taught during one, 90 min. period every other day (A or B Day). There will be a mandatory study hall on the opposite day's period.

There are 2 options for Seniors.

1.) Seniors who have already taken English 101 and passed with a C or better through CCBC either through the Junior Cohort or on their own through CCBC either at campus or online. These students can opt out of their English 12 class and in its' place take 3 CCBC college classes, including English 102.

2.) Seniors who apply and have not taken English 101 or passed English 101 with a C or better, can take 3 CCBC college classes, including English 101.

Both Senior Cohort classes will be taught during one, 90 min. period every other day (A or B Day).

Program Sequence

After one CCBC course is over a new one will begin. If you apply for this program and are accepted, you agree to take all three classes. Schedule changes will not be made mid-year.

If a student starts this program in their Junior year and continues into their Senior year, they can potentially earn 18 college credits.

What courses?

Junior students will likely start with English 101 which also counts for English 11. They will also likely take Psychology 101 which is a .5 Psychology dual credit and likely Fundamentals of Communications 101, which will count for the high school .5 Speech elective. The exact courses offered, and the sequence of these courses can change.

Senior students who have taken and passed English 101 with a C or better will likely start with English 102 which also counts for English 12. They will also likely take Criminal Justice 101 which is 1 high school credit awarded for students in the Homeland Security Completer program and then likely another humanities college class such as Sociology, Psychology or Philosophy which will count for a .5 high school credit. The exact courses offered, and the sequence of these courses can change.

Senior students who have not taken English 101 or did not pass English 101 with a C or better, will likely start with English 101. They will also likely take Criminal Justice 101 which is 1 high school credit awarded for students in the Homeland Security Completer program and then likely another humanities college class such as Sociology, Psychology, or Philosophy which will count for a .5 high school credit. The exact courses offered, and the sequence of these courses can change.

Who can apply?

- Rising Juniors (current 10th graders) and rising Seniors (current 11th graders).
- Those that will likely have a GPA over 2.5 at the end of their 10th and 11th grade year.

Who might be a good fit?

- A student with maturity or seeks autonomy that is ready for a new challenge.
- A student who shows responsibility and solid study habits
- Recommended for students who are successful in Honors English
- A student who plans on continuing at community college or a college that accepts transferred credits from CCBC for more info <http://artsys.usmd.edu/index.html>

Student Scheduling for the 24-25 school year

Starting on December 11 we open the registration season for the next school year. On the 11th and 12th, we will hold extended homerooms for students to complete a 6-year plan Survey, which focuses on students' aspirations for after high school.

The following day we will present an introduction to the registration process. Here students will get an overview of the course offerings and opportunities available for them in the coming year. We will ask that students make their preliminary requests in FOCUS prior to winter break. The school counselors will then meet with each student individually throughout December, January and the beginning of February to review the course selections and help align the course plan with the student's 6-year plan and goals for after high school.

We ask that students and families are patient as meeting with all of the students individually takes time. We will not finalize course requests until this meeting has happened. We then will offer a schedule change opportunity in August. Thank you for your partnership in this process. Please have discussions with your child about their goals and alignments with their courses. For more information about the process and all application/interest and registration forms please go to the Schedule Registration header on the Perry Hall High School Website.

Testimonials and Famous Alumni

The summer of 1963...was one of the most formative in my life. I was seriously considering a life in public service at the time I attended Boys State a program sponsored by The American Legion...

Boys State and Boys Nation helped to teach me from a young age that democracy requires us to get off the sidelines and into the arena. Imperfect as it may be we can't take this system of ours for granted and if we want to make it better and make a difference in peoples lives we need to stand up, show up, and speak up day after day, and year after year.
